I BOUGHT THIS GAME I SHOULD GET SOMETHING I SUPPORTED THIS GAME AND BELIVED IN IT AND I FELL OFFENDED FOR YOU TO JUST GIVE UP AND MAKE IT FREE TO PLAY

. I think this dlc should have been a part of a free update, but for 5$ is can't really complain, it makes the game even more customizable, which is good, and really over all just makes it funner to play.. This game is tedious and not easy what so ever. It doesn't hold your hand and I had to tap out very early and slum it on over to a walk-through. If you really want to challenge yourself try this puzzle game out.. If you've seen the move "The Cube", this is just like it but in video game form! It's a really unique idea thaths a TON of fun to play. I love games that are challenging yet not frustrating and this fits the bill perfectly. Very excited to see this game grow!. I was hoping the conclusion would be a return to form after tedious last chapter and in some ways it is, but for the most part I felt like once again the story and puzzle combination were not on point. So many wild ideas wedged in there, but it's come at a cost of general flow for the chapter. I had to pull out a walk through again to get through most of the last chapter. It didn't feel particularly interesting but was more abstract.

Is there decent closure for the story? Honestly hard to say. It will certainly upset some people when are you are forced into a set choice that might be hard to handle. I'm mostly left with the general closing feeling of "What the hell was all that about?".

Alright, i was looking for a game like o2jam for a very long  time, this right here has fed my insatiable hunger.. It does not work on CV1. this app. for just listening music. and $30.. It's a cool concept, but the game is clunky, controls are unresponsive, the dialogue is abysmal, graphics\animations are choppy, and it feel like it has a pretty big learning curve (or it is just poorly explained and executed). Even for $5, not impressed.. I thought this was going to be a fun campy retro throwback. Instead it's a clunky heap that should've been in the bargain bin at CompUSA in 1997. I wish I got to at least play a shareware version before I spent real money on this. Where can I return this CD-ROM???

For the price you cant go wrong, looking forward to more maps.. i would rather buy a chocolate bar than buying this game...

But overall 8/10. You walk around and get blue balls, and it's not even cold.. Will only be playable if you spend all paychecks on this game.. This game builds off of Yakuza 0, it runs on the same engine and uses the same core mechanics\gameplay loop. You might even just call it Yakuza 0 but with a different story, which it kinda is.

The story is pretty engaging and it's got the Yakuza charm where it's just really campy and stupid but funny, but the gameplay falls apart here. The game is insanely repetitive and grindy; Yakuza 0 suffered from this too, but it managed to break up the tedium by switching you between Kiryu and Majima.
